

GREENER ARTS FESTIVAL 24

FILMS

FRI 15th NOVEMBER

'Wilding' A beautiful and engaging film of the rewilding experiment on the Knepp Estate in Sussex
Village Hall 7.30 pm
£5

FRI 22nd NOVEMBER

'Six inches of soil' British Farmers finding a new way to produce food while healing the soil.

Village Hall 7.30 pm
£5

Holbrook Art Group's GREENER pictures to view each evening

NATURAL WORDS

SUN 17th NOVEMBER

'A prism on nature'

Readings from nature writers like David Attenborough & Richard Mabey along with new stories being told.

Bowls pavilion 2.30-4pm
£3 including tea & cake

CLOSE-UP

SAT 16th NOVEMBER

'Getting close up to trees'

Taking a very close look and listen to our winter trees;
Sound/ Macro-photos /Draw
Make & Decorate a tree
Reade Field Wood

11.00am - Noon
£FREE

SOUNDS

SAT 23rd NOVEMBER

'Listening walk' An easy stroll suitable for all, listening to our surroundings past and present
Meet outside Village Hall
2.30 - 3.30pm
£FREE

Everyone welcome
Other events may be added nearer the time

The Greener Arts Festival lets you explore the living, vibrant world around you via the wonder of the arts. New sounds, sights and experiences showing why we need to find a way to live with nature and protect our planet.

Brought to you through 'Greener Holbrook Greener World' with thanks to all involved.